

WIRED4IMPACT™

IGNITING YOUR GREATEST POTENTIAL

STRAZASOLUTIONS

FOR INDIVIDUALS

Course Description:

Each of us is unique; with a perspective and lived experience all our own. This is wonderful but also offers challenges when others don't see things the way we do. Learning to navigate ourselves in a complex world of unique beings can be challenging. With our Wired 4 Impact course you will explore the 7 key motivational strengths that drive our personalities and impact how we see and understand the world and each other. You will appreciate yourself more profoundly and have a greater understanding of those around you as well.

Individual Course

In this course, you will:

- Discover the top three motivational lenses through which you see life and define the unique perspective and design you alone bring to the world.
- Discover the key motivation, insecurity, vulnerability and key area of influence that comes with each motivational wiring.
- Learn key growth strategies that allow you to step into your strength with courage and humility and grow in awareness when dealing with the shadow side of these strengths.
- Develop a plan for integrating these insights into your personal and work life.

Course includes:

- Online Wired 4 Impact Assessment (Takes about 15 min)
- Digital Wired 4 Impact Workbook
- 90 minute Personal Coaching Session with a Certified Flourishing Coach to help you understand the nuances of your unique combination of strengths and build a plan for integrating your learning.
- 10% Discount on future coaching services

FOR TEAMS

If you are interested in strengthening your team dynamics and empowering your staff to greater personal and team awareness and ownership, this workshop is for you.
